

ANNOUNCEMENT

Encryption system for ENC to be changed

The IHO has announced that, from 1 January 2014, Edition 1.0 of S-63 will be terminated and Edition 1.1 will be the active version of the standard.

Therefore, JHA will provide ENC based on S-63 Edition 1.1 from 1 January 2014.

Please pay your careful attention to the following items.

Note : Due to this change, modifications on processing soft-wares might be required depending on ECDIS or other display system of ENC that you are using now.

Please ask ECDIS manufactures whether the present ECDIS is suitable for S-63 Edition 1.1.
